DADDY WOULDN'T BUY HIM A BOW WOW

Heavy jawed and belligerent, a ferocious looking bull dog reposing in the seat raised his head and growled at a well known Phoenix resident who yesterday afternoon attempted to enter his automobile on Jefferson street, between First street and Central avenue.
"Well Towser," said the surprised business man, "how's chance to let me share my automobile with you?"
The monster showed a glint of green in his eye, while a surly guttural rumble emanated from his innards.
The proprietor of the car gave up his peace overtures, went to the police station and with the assistance of two sturdy cops, "lassoed" the bull and removed him from the car.
It developed that the bulldog belonged to a woman, and thought that he was protecting his master's interests by refusing to let anyone enter the machine.

GOES TO JEROME—Miss Mayla Smallhouse of 908 East Pierce street is in Jerome for the holiday season as the guest of Miss Ethel Wright.
FROM ALBUQUERQUE—Ed Spitz, a well known sheep and cattle man of New Mexico, is registered at the Hotel Adams. Mr. Spitz, whose home is in Albuquerque, expects to be in Phoenix several weeks.

RED CROSS WORK—Red Cross headquarters in the chamber of commerce will be open on Monday when activities will be resumed after a brief recess during the holidays. The sewing room will be closed on New Year's day and will open again on Wednesday.

GIVEN DECREE—Describing his wife as a petulant and irritable woman who cared nothing about him or his business, John Rittorff asked for a divorce from Mrs. Marie Rittorff, in Judge Stanford's court yesterday. Rittorff, who is a soldier, was discharged in a local pharmacy, declared that his wife was a frivolous creature who preferred running about day and night rather than to remain at home and care for his interests. That she was cold and abusive in her treatment of him was also charged by the husband, who said that his peace of mind had been destroyed by her actions. The wife did not appear in court. Rittorff, who was represented by J. E. Nelson, was granted the decree.

PRESIDENT WILL THANK WORKERS

A letter of thanks and appreciation, signed by Woodrow Wilson, president of the United States, a souvenir to be exhibited with pride in later years to one's grandchildren, is to be received in a few days by all those who aided, without compensation, in the work of selecting this state's quota of soldiers for the national army.

Following is a copy of this letter: "The White House, Washington, November 28, 1917.

"To the Members of the Local and District Boards:
"You have now practically completed the great work of selecting the first contingent of the national army. Upon you was developed the difficult task of selecting those who can best serve with the battle flags from thousands of such action heroes, abilities require that they serve at home.

"The successful performance of this duty has undoubtedly brought to a point from the local board the privilege to serve the nation in the hour of need. Commendation can add little to such satisfaction, but I would not be true to my own feelings should I not extend this expression of gratitude to you for the success of this great achievement.

"Many members of the boards have felt that they should render this service without compensation and as a testimonial of such action I have directed that a copy of this letter bearing a notation of such service be sent individually to those who have thus shown their devotion."

Official copy.
E. H. Crowder,
Provost Marshal General.

QUESTIONNAIRES TRIFLE-DELAYED

Many questionnaires mailed to registrants at near-by towns, such as Glendale, Peoria and Gilbert, have either been delayed or sent to the wrong address, according to a statement from the local board. These questionnaires have not been received, and the registrants to whom they are addressed have called at the local board office to learn the reason of the delay.

The local board could give no explanation, and has sent the registrants back home to await their questionnaires. In a statement issued last night by the board it was stated that the blame must be attributed to the Christmas rush and as that is now over, the postoffice force will give particular attention to the delivery of the questionnaires.

Questionnaires 3,500 to 3,710 were mailed yesterday.

BIG REAL ESTATE DEAL TRANSACTED

ROOSEVELT DISTRICT, Dec. 28.—One of the largest and oldest ranches in this district was the subject of a real estate transaction recently when J. A. Johnson sold his 160 acre ranch on the Tempe road to Bert R. Smith. Mr. Smith in turn sold one half interest in the ranch to Ernest Smith and C. B. Moore. The present owners have not fully completed their plans for the future but it will undoubtedly be used as a dairy farm. The ranch is a part of the Bartlett-Heard ranch and was formerly known as the West End camp. Mr. Johnson purchased the ranch about six years ago. The buildings include, besides a good house and several good barns, two silos which are practically new.

Seating room in the Neighborhood House proved to be far too limited to accommodate the large crowd that attended the Christmas entertainment given by the pupils of the Roosevelt school and the Neighborhood Congregational Sunday school, last Friday evening. A program of songs and recitations suggestive of the season were given and brought much applause from the appreciative audience. A Christmas tree was a feature of the evening and candy and fruit was distributed to the children present. Offerings of food, stuffs and discarded clothing were made and were later given to poor and needy families.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rice, Jr., have returned from an extended trip to Colorado, where they visited with Mrs. Rice's parents. For the present they are making their home with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Rice, Sr.

John Price and Mrs. Hazel Lee spent Christmas day at the Will Creighton home on the McDowell road.

A business meeting of the Neighborhood club will be held next Wednesday afternoon. This meeting will mark the last payment on the lighting plant. Those in charge urge all members to be present.

Little George Ryder, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Ryder, is very ill with pneumonia. At last reports he was somewhat improved.

Miss Margaret Ryder spent Christmas with friends at the Billy Cook ranch which is on New River, about 40 miles from Phoenix.

Mr. and Mrs. Thew and Mrs. Earl

Mr. and Mrs. Welcome Mayhew and daughter, Miss Dorothy and Mrs. Mayhew's sister, Miss Lula Eyer, arrived from Los Angeles the first of the week and are spending the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Eyer on the Baseline road.

Misses Mabel Brown and Alma Pettis were guests of Miss Beatrice Kralman for the day.

Mrs. T. S. Gilbert and her daughters, Miss Mary Gilbert and Mrs. Albert Horv, were charming hostesses on Christmas night at a "geographical party." Their hospitality was enjoyed by about thirty guests, members of the winter colony at the Graves' ranch, each wearing some article to indicate a well known geographical point. A general guessing contest resulted, in which Miss Mary Kune Graves carried off the honors and won the prize. Refreshments of cake and cocoa were served.

A Christmas picnic supper was a pleasant affair at Angelina's ranch, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith. Those participating in it were Mr. and Mrs. Smith, Vernon Elliott and his mother, Mrs. Uriah Elliott, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Loomis, Mr. and Mrs. Duckworth and Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Young.

Mrs. Alexander Caldwell of Boston, Mass., arrived Monday afternoon for a visit with her mother and sister, Mrs. E. A. Thomas and Miss Marjorie Thomas. Mrs. Caldwell, like all eastern visitors, is charmed with the Arizona brand of winter weather and will remain for an extended visit. Her plans also include a visit with her relatives, the Swifts of Chicago, before returning to her Boston home.

J. L. Conrad and family of Phoenix are moving this week to their Paradise valley home.

Messrs. Parsons and J. W. Dawson and little daughter, Ruth, were Scottsdale visitors Wednesday.

SCOTTSDALE BABY GIRL IS PRESENT
SCOTTSDALE, Dec. 28.—One of the most delightful Christmas presents which Santa Claus left in this vicinity was the one bestowed on Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Van Pelt, who are the proud parents of a little daughter, born Christmas morning. The lassie has been named Ida, for her great grandmother.

Ben Housden has left for his former home in Buchanan, Tennessee, where he is in the army.

William H. Van Kluck offered final proof on his deed claim Monday. His two witnesses who accompanied him to Phoenix were Wm. Kinsey and J. E. McClure.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pierce entertained delightfully with a Christmas party at their Paradise valley home on Saturday night. A tree with ferns for the guests was the main feature of the evening, and holiday games were played. In the late evening, refreshments of cake and hot chocolate were enjoyed by the guests, who were Mr. and Mrs. George Barrington, Mr. and Mrs. L. Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Lewis, Mrs. J. C. Ryan and two sons, Mrs. Oliver and children, Mrs. Waldford and daughter, Grace, Miss Katherine, Jessie and Florence Campbell, Alma Pettis, Mabel Brown, Miss Lastrum, Messrs. Elmer Bell, J. L. Conrad, Alexander Campbell and Max Quasne.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Caldwell were Christmas guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Griffith.

Wade Marshall of Chandler was a Scottsdale visitor on Christmas day. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burleson and children, Katherine and Frank, Jr., are spending the holiday season in San Rafael with Mrs. Burleson's sister. The occasion is a family reunion. The first time all the members have been together for eight years.

A reunion of the Caldwell family was held on Christmas day at the E. O'Brien home. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Caldwell and sons, Frank and Tommy, and Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Caldwell and daughters, Leonora and Adeline, of Tempe, being present.

Mrs. J. Will Brown left Friday evening for Camp Kearney to spend the holidays with her husband, who is stationed there.

Mrs. Katherine Shepard was hostess at a dinner and theater party in Phoenix. Her guests being Miss Marguerite Shepard, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Smith and Peter Lasser.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Last and son, Gene, were entertained at the Guy Loomis home.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Allen were Christmas guests of J. L. Conrad and wife of Phoenix.

Mrs. V. A. Vanderhoof, who has been spending the past week at the Messer home near Phoenix, returned home Christmas morning.

Mr. Wesley Patterson was a Scottsdale visitor on Christmas day.
